DnD Club- Attention all storytellers and storydoers, we are hosting DnD on Wednesdays and Fridays after school in M9 and M10. Available for people of all skill levels, so come and join us to start your adventure!

Tuckshop Competition- Last week's ticket was not claimed, so the final prize is a $100 Prezzy voucher. Winning ticket is Green 069395. Claim your prize from the top tuckshop by the end of interval on Friday.

Chinese Night MC auditions- A big thank you to everyone who applied. The live auditions will be on Friday 01/04 afterschool from 3:30 - 4:30. You are allowed to use cue cards. You will be judged on how well you capture the audience's attention, how clear you are with your messaging, how confident you sound and how good you are with improvisation. The auditions will be in E11. Please check your emails for your allocated time.

Hug A Tree-Do you want to protect our environment for future generations? Hug A Tree is a new club this year which is centred around raising awareness and money to support local conservation projects to restore our beautiful ecosystems and reduce the impact of urban densification.

Some of our planned events this year to support our community include pot and earring making, a candyfloss sale and restorative plantings. Come to K5 at lunchtime on Thursday 31st of March (Week 9) to sign up and get involved in supporting our local community!

Rangitoto Geopolitics Club - Come along to K5 at lunchtime on Friday 1st April to sign up for the Rangitoto Geopolitics Club where we will discuss current events such as the Russo-Ukraine war, New Zealand foreign policy, the South China Sea and the future of space. Everyone is welcome to come along and share their perspectives and thoughts on a wide range of matters.

Rangitoto Red Cross- Our very first event is starting Week 9. We will be doing a raffle, starting at $5 with some awesome prizes to be won. Buy your tickets in B1 at morning tea this week. Check Google Classroom for details. It's not too late to join our group! Google Classroom Code fn426xf

Sustainable Coastlines- We have a fun and educational workshop about fast fashion on Friday lunchtime in week 9 in C5. There will also be a raffle for handmade jewellery by us. Entries for the raffle are 2 dollars and multiple entries are allowed. All proceeds will go to the sustainable coastlines charity. See you there!!

SENIORS

SCHOLARSHIP ROOM ACCESS- All students taking Scholarship classes are now able to get their new ID cards activated to use the Scholarship room in the library. Please see Mrs Hopkins at the IT department at LUNCHTIME ONLY with your ID card to have the access added to your card.

Many thanks, Trish Webster, Library

Become a Year 13 Volunteer Mentor - Last days to apply!!

The Learning Centre is looking for student volunteers to support juniors during one of their study periods during the week. All support welcome, creative, sporty & academic.
