Participation Message		Involvement in a group or activity shows commitment.

Journalism Club AKA The Rangitoto Reporter are meeting Wednesday lunchtime in E4. All welcome. See you there!

All PASIFIKA students need to meet Period 4 on Thursday 1st June in the Staffroom.

CandyWaves Club - Hi everyone! Candy Waves is back with our first event of the year, which will be designing colouring-in pages for children in hospitals! Radio Lollipop will distribute your designs to these children to brighten their day, so it's a great cause to be part of. If you are interested, please come along during Wednesday, Thursday OR Friday lunch Week 6 to E2 to create your original colouring page. You will only need to come to one of these sessions. This will go towards one of the three events required for Candy Waves to be on your student profile.

If you are interested, please sign up through the Google form below:

We look forward to seeing you!

Pick up and play- Reminder there is bball on the courts every lunchtime this week as well as for the remainder of the term. Bring some friends and come along!

Samoan Language Week- Talofa Lava!

This week, the Academic and the Māori and Pacifica leadership teams are hosting a Samoan Language week Kahoot.

This will be held in the Rangi Centre on Wednesday the 31st June at Lunch Time, Week 6

Bring your friends and everyone is welcome to learn about Samoa and it's culture whilst playing a fun Kahoot!

The scores of each team will be added week on week, so by week 10, the team with the most points will be crowned as the winner of the 2023 Kahoot Series and receive even more prizes!!

Everyone is in to win week-to-week prizes so make sure you're there as soon as possible at the start of lunch, with your device ready to sign in. We are excited to see you there! Feiloa'i ai iina!

RATONGA-SERVING THE COMMUNITY

Working towards your Rangitoto Summit Diploma or Student Volunteer Army?

East Coast Bays Rotary Club is hosting a tree planting day on Saturday 3 June from 9.30 am - 11:30 am. There is a target of planting 1000 native trees at Centennial Park, Campbells Bay. This is a great opportunity to raise your service hours towards the Summit Diploma and Student Volunteer Army. All you need to bring is your own spade, gardening gloves and meet outside the Greville Reserve changing rooms. Look out for the East Coast Bays Rotary Banner. If you also completed the tree planting event at Upper Harbour Primary on Saturday 20th May, completing this event this Saturday will qualify for this service to be added to your student profile. Please register your interest via the Google form link below before Friday 9.00 am. :
