Year 13 Student Volunteers to act as Reader/Writers for Junior Students

We are looking for responsible, patient, and reliable Year 13 students to volunteer as Reader/Writers for our Year 9 and 10 students during their upcoming exams.

Stepping up as a Reader/Writer is a fantastic way to show leadership within the school and make a difference for junior students who need a little extra support to do their best.

What does it involve?

- You will be paired with a junior student during their exam conditions to either read the exam questions to them, write down their spoken answers, or both. You do not need any prior experience to apply!
- Training Details We want to make sure you feel completely confident before you start, so we will be holding a training session today during morning tea in D.6. There will be chocolate biscuits to provide sustenance during the training session.
- Students who regularly volunteer will have this recognised on their school service profile.

RNZAF "School to Skies" Student Camp – ONLY for Year 12 Ready to take your interest in STEM to the next level? The RNZAF "School to Skies" programme is a hands-on aviation camp designed to show you what a technical career really looks like. Held at RNZAF Base Auckland, this no-cost camp (excluding travel) allows you to plan flight missions, create aircraft components, and build resilience through specialist workshops. You'll mingle with like-minded students from across NZ and learn directly from service personnel. If you're passionate about science and maths but unsure of your future pathway, this camp is the perfect way to see how your classroom knowledge solves real-world challenges. Apply now close on the 18th of March.

To read more click here

Please note they receive over 100 applications but only offer 30-40 spots therefore, applications that have a high level of detail and effort put into them are more likely to succeed over those that only offer 1-2 sentences.

Year 12 & 13: Navy "School to Seas" Camp

Ever wondered what a career on the high seas looks like? Applications are now open for the School to Seas Camp at Devonport Naval Base! This is a fully funded, week-long experience (accommodation and food included) designed to show you how your school subjects apply to real-world maritime careers. From hands-on technical challenges to exploring life on the base, this camp is perfect for motivated Year 12 and 13 students looking to break stereotypes and find their future pathway. Applications open now—don't miss out!

- Who: Year 12 & 13 students (must be studying NCEA Level 2/3).
- Where: Devonport Naval Base, Auckland.
- Cost: FREE (meals, gear, and accommodation provided; you only cover travel).
