Korean Mentoring Programme 🇰🇷

Are you a senior student who wants to help others and make a positive impact at Rangitoto College?

The Korean Mentoring Programme is starting soon! Senior students will act as mentors for junior Korean international students, as well as a few Year 11 international students. Mentors will meet with their mentees once every 1–2 weeks at lunchtime, chatting, giving advice, and helping them settle into school life. You can share tips about schoolwork, understanding the school system, talking with teachers, and joining clubs and activities.

Bonus: Mentoring counts towards Service Leadership and will be recorded on your Student Report!

We're looking for senior students who want to become mentors and make a positive difference. If you're interested, please apply using this Google Form: <https://forms.gle/smy8q51Hdx7JFuf3A>
