CELEBRATE PHILIPPINE LANGUAGE MONTH

Hello mga Kabayan!

It's the month where we celebrate "Buwan ng Wika" — the Philippine Language Month.

To celebrate, we are hosting fun lunchtime events throughout this week:

Wednesday (19th August)- PINOY LORE. Learn more about Filipino culture, folklore, and many more through interactive events @ C11

Thursday (20th August)- KARAOKE @ the Theatrette PA5!

If interested, please fill out this form: <https://forms.gle/yc1oB1GL36ffQbLU6>

We will also be holding an ART COMPETITION throughout the month! Submit an art that portrays Filipino Culture! More details on GC: fonynv

E Sports - North Shore Fortnite Tournament

Introducing the ONLY Fortnite comp for 2026! If you want to test your skills against other local players, we'd love to have you join. How it works:

You'll be playing from home on your own setup, so feel free to use whatever you normally play on (PC, PlayStation, Xbox, Switch, etc).

How to sign up: You can find all the details and register for the tournament here: <https://cmlin.win>.

If you have any questions about the rules or need help signing up, send an email to 186342@cloud.rangitoto.school.nz.

Hope to see you in the brackets!

Hobby Game Dev Project:

We are building a small team of students to create an original indie game with horror elements over the next 6–12 months.

We are looking for students interested in ...

- Programming/coding — logical thinking, problem-solving, Godot, Unity, Unreal Engine, or other coding experience

- Game/level design — creativity and an understanding of what makes games engaging and fun

- Art/animation/UI — digital art, 2D/3D design, animation, UI design, or visual effects (especially needed)

- Music/sound — composition, sound effects, or audio editing

You do not need to be an expert, although prior experience is greatly appreciated.

Accountability, willingness to learn and make mistakes, teamwork, communication, and completing your responsibilities on time are more important.

Add your name to our spreadsheet if you are interested!

If a major emergency happens tomorrow...

Would you know what to do? And where would you get your information?

 Earthquake

 Tsunami

 Flood

 Cyclone

 Volcanic eruption

When disasters happen, information comes from everywhere. School. Family. Friends. Social media. News. Emergency services.

But who do you trust? What do you already know? And how do you decide what to do?

Researchers from Auckland University of Technology (AUT) want to hear what secondary school students really think about natural hazards and emergency preparedness.

There are no right or wrong answers. We want to hear your experiences, opinions and ideas.

What's involved?

 One relaxed focus group with 6 to 8 students

 Around 45 to 60 minutes

 Held here at school

 No preparation or expert knowledge needed

Who can register?

Students in Years 9 to 13.

We'll invite a small group of students from different year levels and backgrounds so we can hear a wide range of perspectives.

Why take part?

✓ Share your ideas and experiences

✓ Help researchers understand how young people learn about natural hazards

✓ Help improve how schools and emergency agencies communicate with young people

Interested?

Complete the Expression of Interest by scanning the QR code or using the link below.

 Rangitoto College: Expression of Interest to Participate in Student Focus Groups – Fill out form

If you're selected, we'll contact you through your school email with information about the next steps, including parent/caregiver permission requirements.

Your perspective could help shape how New Zealand prepares young people for future emergencies.
