Book Club for Juniors

Tuesday 1st September 2026, Lunch break, in the library. Bring your lunch! :)

Chinese Language Week: Chinese Language Week kicks off today! The Chinese Committee has been busy organising exciting events to celebrate. Throughout the week, you can get involved, learn something new, and immerse yourself in Chinese culture.

Today's Phrase of the Day is 你好帅哥/美女 (nǐ hǎo shuài gē / měi nǚ), which translates to "Hello handsome guy/ Hello pretty girl." Try using it to greet your friends and teachers today!

Here is a video of how to pronounce the phrase of the day:

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1woEyvb27227eU-R7qSE05UYZA9l8g2Sd/view?usp=sharing>

To start the week, join us at the flagpole at lunchtime for traditional Chinese games and head to the auditorium to participate in a fun Kahoot quiz about Chinese language and culture! There are awesome prizes and vouchers up for grabs, so bring your friends and join in the fun!

Do you want to digitally explore the world and be in to win prizes ?

Global Studies is excited to announce our first and only event for 2026: Geoguessr!

You will be in groups of 3-5, tasked to try and find a location anywhere in the world 🌐

Win vouchers and prizes worth over $200!

This event will be hosted on Wednesday week 10 lunchtime in the Auditorium (23rd of September).

Please refer to the google classroom for more further details closer to the event date.

Overseas experience programmes - webinar

Projects Abroad run volunteering programmes for students aged 14-18 years in the mid year break in locations such as Fiji, Cambodia, Nepal, Tanzania and Peru. They are ideal for individuals or groups of friends. These programmes are service-based, with students having practical and meaningful roles in programmes such as:

- Community Work and Early Years Development
- Conservation Work
- Human Rights and Social Justice
- Construction & Sports

Come along to their webinar to find out more: Monday 14 September. Details and registration can be found on this link.

Drive Your Future information evenings - MITO

MITO is excited to invite students, whānau and kura kaimahi to join us and explore careers in the automotive, commercial road transport, mining, and quarrying industries. Attendees will gain insights into careers in the industries that MITO supports, and hear from industry professionals about what they're looking for in an employee. This is a valuable opportunity for students to hear what it's like to work in these sectors and find out how to get started on their own career pathway. Thursday 17 September, Sancta Maria College, 5:30 to 7:30pm with light refreshments provided. Any questions, contact vca@mito.org.nz. Click here to register.

E Sports - North Shore Fortnite Tournament

Introducing the ONLY Fortnite comp for 2026! If you want to test your skills against other local players, we'd love to have you join. How it works:

You'll be playing from home on your own setup, so feel free to use whatever you normally play on (PC, PlayStation, Xbox, Switch, etc).

How to sign up: You can find all the details and register for the tournament here: <https://cmlin.win>.

If you have any questions about the rules or need help signing up, send an email to 186342@cloud.rangitoto.school.nz.

Hope to see you in the brackets!

Hobby Game Dev Project:

We are building a small team of students to create an original indie game with horror elements over the next 6–12 months.

We are looking for students interested in ...

- Programming/coding — logical thinking, problem-solving, Godot, Unity, Unreal Engine, or other coding experience

- Game/level design — creativity and an understanding of what makes games engaging and fun

- Art/animation/UI — digital art, 2D/3D design, animation, UI design, or visual effects (especially needed)

- Music/sound — composition, sound effects, or audio editing

You do not need to be an expert, although prior experience is greatly appreciated.

Accountability, willingness to learn and make mistakes, teamwork, communication, and completing your responsibilities on time are more important.

Add your name to our spreadsheet if you are interested!
